Book Description:

Sometimes, being on the opposite side of the track, gives you a better view.

Sam McKenzie has everything he needs in his professional life. Bluegrass Security is going strong, he just purchased a home for the first time in his life, he even got himself a dog. Personally, however, life was a bit unsettled. His growing crush on Stevie Jorgenson was unrequited – he just didn't know why. She seemed to enjoy spending time with him, he'd caught her staring more than once, but yet, she seemed wary to take it to the next level.

Stevie Jorgenson had worked her entire life trying to step from the shadow of her wealthy family, including the family horse business. Excelling at the police academy and then making detective in Chandler County had been hard work. Now, her growing attraction to Sam McKenzie was beginning to shade her with its shadow. The trouble was his biggest client was her father's rival in business and that could make things messy. His client is also a dirty dealer and she had to uphold the law. How can they make it on opposite sides of the track?

Short Blurb:

Sam McKenzie has it all; his security business, friends, a house and a dog. After a one night stand with sexy Stevie Jorgenson he finds she's heavy on his mind. Then he finds she's the local Detective, who now seems to be at odds with him. A rash of horse poisonings forces them together. Now Sam needs to figure out how to make her trust him, but they seem to be on opposite sides of the track.

About the Author:

Writing has been a desire my whole life. Once I found the courage to write, life changed for me in the most profound way. Bringing stories to readers that I'd enjoy reading and creating characters that are flawed, but lovable is such a joy.

When not writing, I'm with my family doing something fun. My husband, Gene, and I are bikers and enjoy riding to new locations, meeting new people and generally enjoying this fabulous country we live in.

I come from a family of veterans. My grandfather, father, brother, two sons, and one daughter-in-law are all veterans. Needless to say, I am proud to be an American and proud of the service my amazing family has given.
